Have you ever felt that there's got to be more to life?
Are you curious about God but not sure about going to a church?
Or maybe you tried church but felt like you didn't fit in?

St. Arbucks Church is a new group where young adults can get together and find the answers to life's questions and challenges in God's word in a safe, casual and open environment.

There's no cost, no pressure and no dress code.
Bring your questions and your doubts and join us at the Martinsville Starbucks on Thursdays @ 7 p.m.
Call Kurt at 765 537-9517 or go to nccmartinsville.org.

St. Arbucks Church: Ground Rules

Confidentiality:

We will support the foundation of trust in our group by not participating in gossip. We will not reveal any personal information shared by others during our meetings.

Respect:

We will create a safe environment for our group members by listening carefully and respecting others.

Honesty:

We will share truthfully with one another. No one will be put “on the spot” or asked to share more than they’re comfortable with.

Accountability:

We will allow the people in our group to hold us accountable for growing spiritually.
